JOHN BAINES
Head Men's Basketball Coach

John Baines has finished his sixth season as the head men's basketball coach at Elmhurst College.

In 2013, Baines inherited a 6-19 team and needed only two seasons to bring the Bluejays back to the national spotlight. In 2014-15, the team posted a 20-8 overall record, sat in the national rankings, and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Baines was named the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association "Division III Coach of the Year."

In 2016-17, Baines guided the Bluejays to a 22-7 overall record, a trip to the second-round of the NCAA Tournament, and a #2 ranking in the national polls. The 22 wins matched a school record for most wins in a season. The team's second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament and back-to-back 20-win seasons was a first in school history.

Before coming to Elmhurst, Baines was the head coach at the University of St. Francis (IL). In his debut season at St. Francis in 2010-11, Baines guided the Saints to a 21-10 overall record, an improvement of 13 games from the previous season and the team's best record in 21 seasons. His team climbed to as high as 24th in the NAIA Division I coaches' poll.

In nine seasons as a head coach, Baines has compiled a 156-109 overall record. As an assistant coach with the Bluejays, Baines helped coach a squads that were ranked in the D3hoops.com top-10 for three consecutive years from 2007-2009.

He played college basketball at Illinois Wesleyan University. He was a part of teams that compiled a 103-14 record, played in the NCAA Tournament four times, reached the Final Four twice and won a national championship in 1997.
