CAMP DIRECTORS

---

JOHN BAINES

John Baines is directing his 15th Skills Camp over the past 18 years. He, along with former Elmhurst head coach Mark Scherer, created this camp in 2001.

Baines began his collegiate coaching career at Elmhurst in 2000-01. Baines has been named the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association (IBCA) coach of the year as recently as 2015. He has been coaching collegiate basketball for 19 years and owns the best winning percentage as a head coach at both University of St. Francis (2011-2013) and Elmhurst College (present) in both school's history. He has guided the Bluejays to 2 trips to the NCAA tournament and has won a game in both appearances.

Baines is a math education major from Illinois Wesleyan and has a Master's degree from Virginia Commonwealth in the area of Sports Management. Baines is married to wife, Emily, and has two children, Sloane and Jackson. They reside in Addison, IL.

PEYTON WYATT

Peyton Wyatt will be entering his second year as an assistant men's basketball coach and head men's golf coach at Elmhurst College. Wyatt most recently served as a graduate assistant for the men's basketball team at Elmhurst College. As a veteran of the Basketball Skills Camp, Wyatt will be leading his 7th season at camp.

Wyatt spent his basketball playing career at Elmhurst College reaching the round of 32 in the NCAA Division III tournament his junior and senior year. Wyatt is currently ranked second all-time at Elmhurst College for three-point field goal percentage at 42.8. In his junior year, he topped the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW) in three-point percentage with a mark of 47.4%. He graduated from Newton Community High School in Newton, Ill. in 2008 where he is the all-time leading scorer and an IBCA All-State selection his junior and senior years in basketball.

Wyatt has a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and a Master's degree in Business Administration at Elmhurst College. He is married to his wife, Lindsey, and resides in Elmhurst.

EMILY BAINES

Emily is working her 5th Skills Camp over the past 6 years. Emily played college basketball at UNC-Charlotte and has her Master's degree in Sport Management. Emily has coached at the collegiate level at VCU and Wagner University, as well as being a head girl's high school coach at Gar Field High School in Woodbridge, VA. Emily was a K-8 physical education teacher for 8 years and specializes in youth basketball. Emily is the wife of Director, John Baines, and has two children, Sloane (4) and Jackson (2).

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that I am the legal guardian of the player. I hereby give my permission for the staff of Elmhurst College Basketball, during the duration of the camp, to seek appropriate medical attention for the player, for medical attention to be given and for the player to receive medical attention in the event of accident, injury or illness. I will be responsible for any and all costs of medical attention and treatment and have medical insurance to cover these costs.

I, the undersigned, for myself and as a guardian of above named player, understand that basketball is an active, physical sport, and that injuries can take place during play. I also understand that there will be a number of other players attending the camp, there will be a limited number of staff and that our child cannot receive individualized attention and supervision all of the time. I understand that, as with any sport, injuries can occur, and we hereby acknowledge that our child is physically fit and mentally capable of participating in camp activities.

I, the undersigned for myself, my heirs, executors and administrators, waive, release and forever discharge Elmhurst College Basketball, Elmhurst College, and its staff, officers, agents, representatives, successors, and assign of and from all rights and claims for damages, injury or loss to person or property which may be sustained or occur during participation in camp activities or while at the camp, whether or not damages, injury or loss due to negligence.
